Dear Harold,

We have one book carded and another about half finished. Hopefully, next week we'll be able to get the other two books from the library and start consolidating the indexes.

If you want the indexes to Meagher & Roffman carded also, but dont have an immediate use for them, we can start working on those a little at a time when we get the chance. We might be able to get one of them done while we're waiting for the other books to be returned to the library.

Best,
Karen
